

Contents

Contributors

Preface

1. Introduction

Martin Drenthen & Jozef Keulartz

Part One: Coming of Age

2. Ten Steps in the Development of Western Environmental Aesthetics

Allen Carlson

3. Future Directions for Environmental Aesthetics

Yuriko Saito

4. European and American Approaches to Environmental Aesthetics

Jonathan Maskit

Part Two: Rethinking Relationships

5. The Language of Environment

Arnold Berleant

6. Toward an Aesthetics of Respect

Denis Dumas

7. From Theoretical to Applied Environmental Aesthetics

Yrjö Sepänmaa (reprint EV 19, August 2010)

Part Three: Nature, Art and the Power of Imagination

8. Environmental Art and Ecological Citizenship

Jason Simus

9. Can Only Art Save us Now?

David Wood

10. Landscape of the Environmental Imagination: from NASA images to Kiefer and

O'Keeffe Paintings

Irene Klaver

Part Four: Wind Farms, Shopping Malls and Wild Animals

11. Beauty or Bane: Advancing an Aesthetic Appreciation for Wind Farms

Tyson-Lord Gray

12. Thinking Like A Mall

Steven Vogel

13. Aesthetic Value and Wild Animals

Emily Brady